Day 2: LANGUAGE FOR LIFE

The students were given training about the importance of the language skills in life. This course comprises of LSRW

Listening, Speaking, Reading & writing

Various activity based training were given including the pronunciation of

Fish & Chips

Cheese & crisps

All the students were clubbed into groups and asked to communicate among themselves. This includes introducing ourselves to strangers or in public, knowing them and having an icebreaking silence with them.

The students communicated well and were able to remember the names of their group.

Listening is the very basic skill a man could develop

The task here is to listen to the word – animal names and act as it.

All were enthusiastic in this.

Listeners won in this activity.

Walking barefooted on a road during a hot sunny day

Giraffe

Walking in an exhausted mode.

*When 200 students dance in sync
There exists a beautiful sound in movement.*

All the students with the faculty members enjoyed and embraced the sounds in movement all in sync.
