Report

On behalf of the Institution of Engineers at Sudharsan Engineering College, Dr. Karuppasamy, the former Dean of Tiruchirappalli Local Center of the institution, conducted an orientation introductory class for the second and third year engineering students today to create awareness and improve their technical knowledge. He elaborated on the privileges and benefits of joining the Institution of Engineers. He also told the history of IEI and explained to the students about the incentive given to the students for their intellectual and technical efforts. Dr. K Srinivasan gave the inaugural address after felicitating the special invitee with a memento. Dr. K Chitra presided over the event on behalf of the Department of Mechanical Engineering and Assistant Professors Parthiban and Ragunesan of the Department of Mechanical Engineering made arrangements.
